Madani pearls for parents

1. Good training is of crucial importance in developing a child into a responsible individual of an Islamic society. Realising the responsibilities of ideal parents, inculcate the devotion to Allah عَزَّوَجَلَّ and His Prophet صَلَّى اللهُ تَعَالَى عَلَيْهِ وَآلِهِ وَسَلَّمَ in children through recitation of the Holy Quran and Naat at home. Madani Channel is a useful source for this purpose.
2. Persuade your children to offer Salah from early age, with the intention of growing them habituated to it, and emphasise to offer Salah regularly as soon as they reach the age of seven.
3. Initiate delivering Dars from Faizan-e-Sunnat at home with the intention of learning and teaching the holy Sunnah of Beloved Prophet صَلَّى اللهُ تَعَالَى عَلَيْهِ وَآلِهِ وَسَلَّمَ.
4. To infuse the respect for parents, teachers and elders, read them some accounts of pious predecessors from the publications of Maktaba-tul-Madinah.
5. To bring them up in accordance with Islamic teachings, adopt good moral conduct, forbearance, gratitude, humility, and follow the teachings of Holy Quran and Sunnah, thus set a practical example for your children.
6. Instil into your children the avoidance of sins like lying, backbiting, slander, quarrel, swearing, unlawful use of eyes, etc.
7. Provide a balanced and healthy diet for the physical growth and health of your children. Feed them on a diet of milk, fruits, etc. with your Halal earnings.
8. Check homework diary of your child daily, to become aware of their academic position. Attend parent-teacher / parent-management meetings regularly.
9. For the rectification of mistakes, avoid beating your child, but rather make them understand with love and polite behaviour.
10. Always grant your child with prayers, e.g. blessings in knowledge and practice, long life, etc.
